

Definition(adj): competent or skilled in doing or using something.

Article Sentences:

But in high schools and colleges, there is mounting evidence that the growth of online education is hurting a critical group: the less _____ students who are precisely those most in need of skilled classroom teachers.

My Own Sentence:

A _____ German speaker should be able to distinguish verbs and nouns easily in German.

proficient(adj)
proficient(n)

Definition(adj): relating to, having, or being elements or events with definite probability of occurrence

Article Sentence:

Students who had failed algebra were _____ assigned either to online or to face-to-face recovery courses.

My Own Sentence:

Thailand's military draft is instituted through the _____ selection of eligible men by lottery.

random(adj)
randomness(n)

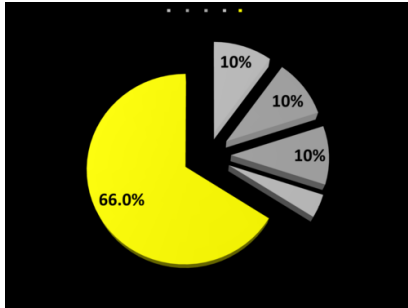

Definition(adj): to a great or significant extent

Article Sentences:

The online algebra students did _____ better than their counterparts in standard classrooms.

My Own Sentence :

The rate of smartphone production is _____ increasing.

substantially(adv)
substantial(adj)

Definition(adj): Unsuitably, unreasonably, or inappropriately sized

Article Sentence:

These schools _____ enroll low-income students who are often the first in their families to attend college.

My Own Sentence:

A cartoon character has a _____ large head and facial characteristics of a baby to display cuteness.

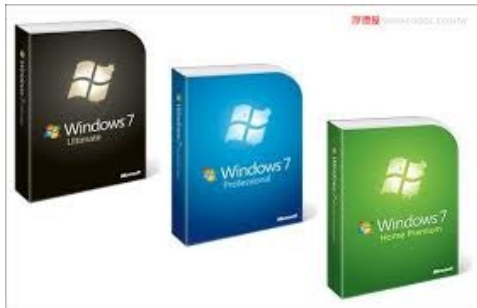

disproportionately(adv)
disproportionate(adj)

Definition(n): a form or variant of a type or original

Article Sentences: DeVry offers online and face-to-face _____ of all its courses, using the same textbooks, assessments, assignments and lecture materials in each format.

My Own Sentence:

Since the dawn of Christianity, there have been multiple _____ of the Bible.

version(n)
versional(adj)

Definition(n): an alternative course of action

Article Sentences:

For advanced learners, online classes are a terrific _____, but academically challenged students need a classroom with a teacher's support.

My Own Sentence :

The military service is often the preferred _____ over being sentenced to a penalty for young adult convicts in the State of Mississippi.

option(n)
option(v)

Definition(n): something produced by a cause or necessarily following from a set of conditions

Article Sentences:

The negative may not be obvious at first, because the pass rates in these courses are very high and students who take them tend to graduate from high school instead of flunking out.

My Own Sentence:

The negative _____ includes lung cancer, child defects.

consequence(n)
consequently(adv)

Definition(n): the quality and quantity of a student's work

Article Sentences:

Research suggests that students – at nearly all levels of _____ – do just as well in these blended classes as they do in traditional classrooms.

My Own Sentence:

Standardized tests such as SATs do not measure a student's _____.

achievement(n)
achieving(v)

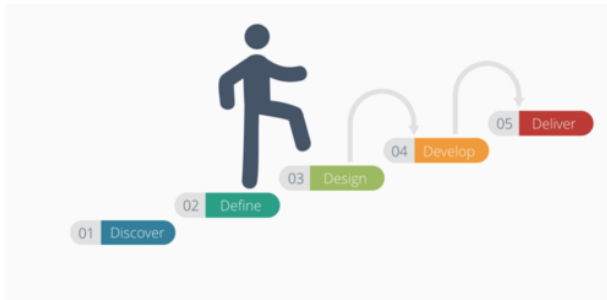

definition(n): the taking of preliminary steps toward a particular purpose

Article Sentences:

The M.I.T. _____ reverses the high school model in which students who fail in a face-to-face class are shifted into a more challenging online format.

My Own Sentence:

My _____ to studying is by applying what I learn and practicing them.

approach(n)
approach(v)

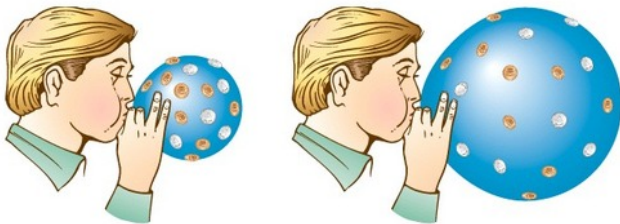

Definition(v): to increase the extent, number, volume, or scope

Article Sentences:

In colleges, especially in non-selective and for-profit schools, online education has _____ rapidly, too, with similar effects.

My Own Sentence:

Universe has been _____ rapidly since the Big Bang.

expand(v)
expanded(adj)